

Damaged Wells, Furnaces and Septic Systems May be Covered by FEMA

---

If you are a New Jersey resident whose home was damaged by the remnants of Hurricane Ida, FEMA recommends inspecting your heating, ventilation, air conditioning system (HVAC), furnaces, septic systems and/or wells to see if they were affected.

For the latest information visit fema.gov/disaster/4614.